- The Divorce rate is 50%-60%

According to the media, the divorce rate is 50%-60%. Obviously, the ways that we’ve been trying to solve marriage problems and hold marriages together just aren’t working in this day and time. Your audience is packed with those who need relationship and marital suggestions to help keep their families together!

- “Relationship terrorists” in both Business and Personal Relationships

The “secret” of why relationships fail can be applied to business relationships as well as personal relationships. Once we discover the “relationship terrorists” in our own lives, they no longer control us; we can control them!

- Marriage Counseling books are Usually Out-of-Date

One of the reasons that marriages fail is because many of the marriage counseling books are often 40 years old or older. As much as life has changed in even just the past 10 years, marriage counseling books that are two generations old are just not in touch with the problems and world that everyone deals with on a daily basis.

- Relationships are not Mathematical

In mathematics, 1/2 plus 1/2 equals a whole number, the number one. $1/2 + 1/2 = 1$. But not in relationships. Dr. Boone tells your audience why!

- “Laughter Opens the Heart”

It’s difficult to be angry at someone while you’re laughing with them. Find out the secret to getting through to your partner!

After graduate education for a masters in counseling and a doctorate in counseling, plus multiple on-the-job experiences, Dr. Pat Boone became determined to find the “secret” as to why relationships would fail, both personal and business relationships, when it seemed that the people involved were almost a perfect match. From her clients, friends and family, she discovered the answer to the mystery and determined to “get the word out,” by shouting “warning, danger” from the housetops.
