

Dr. Pat Boone Resume

Dr. Boone has extensive work experience. She is the owner of Dr. Patricia M. Boone LLC, which offers a variety of services based on her Doctorate Degree in Counseling and her experience as a Hospital Chaplain and Counselor. She is a Certified Mediator in General Business and Real Estate. She is a Speaker, Announcer, Songwriter and Artist. As an Ordained Minister, she officiates at Weddings and Funerals in the Colorado Springs area. She also officiates at Pet Funerals, officiating at no charge at funerals for Military Dogs, Police Dogs, Assistance and Seeing Eye Dogs and ceremonies for Animal Rescue Organizations. She officiates at Equine Funerals of Tribute for Championship Horses. She provides Personal Development Consulting & Advisory Services for Marriage, Pre-marital and Re-marital; Divorce Property Settlement; and Holistic Health, the subjects of her three books in The Life Series that are featured on Amazon.com. In 2007, Dr. Boone wrote and sang a New Christmas Song to Honor and Encourage Our Troops entitled "A Christmas Letter From Your Family," and then offered it free online to honor our military, both active and retired. The story of the song was featured by UPI, Christian Newswire, Standard Newswire, NextNews, Marine Parents, Texas Republican Women, Hot Springs Village Voice, Good News Daily, San Diego Veterans News, locally by the Gazette YourHub, Cheyenne Edition and Woodmen Edition, LampstandStudy.com, Womantalk.us, ProLifeBlogs.com, Info24news (Germany), NewsAlbum.com, ChristianCourant.com, RonaldReagan.com and other various websites, including US DOD Military Health System, plus radio stations nationwide, including The Glenn Beck Program, under such titles as "Christmas Song Saves Soldiers Lives" (UPI) and "Boone Sings for the Troops," and "New Patriotic Christmas Song is Free Online."

Prior to moving to Colorado Springs in 1999, she owned a Mail Boxes Etc. for 10 years that was in the top 200 of 2000 stores worldwide in sales. Prior to that, while working on her graduate degrees, she was head of the International Department for a Travel Agency in Atlanta. She owned Stone Mountain Bicycle Rental at Stone Mountain State Park in Atlanta, becoming the first female concessionaire in the state of Georgia. She was a CPE (Clinical Pastoral Education) Instructor at Southern Regional Medical Center in Atlanta, a Certification she earned from Emory University. She sold Real Estate in Atlanta, both Commercial and Residential, was head of the Farm and Land Department, and earned a GRI (Graduate, Realtors Institute) designation from the University of Georgia. She has been an Accountant, a Teacher (Math, Science and Reading) and a reading demonstration Teacher for the state of Texas, as well as a model at the Dallas Merchandise Mart. Immediately upon graduation from college, she was hired by Lockheed Aerospace as a Fortran IV Programmer and then by Boeing Aerospace as a Technical Writer and Editor for the Saturn V Space Program.

As part of her extensive airline experience, she completed Pilot Ground School while she was in college. She was a Flight Attendant and then promoted to Flight Attendant Supervisor for Eastern Metro Express. She has been a Reservations Agent. She has been a Gate Agent. She handled the Accounting, Customs, and Weight & Balance for United Airlines in Wilmington, North Carolina, a port city. She worked at the Ticket Counter. She was trained to load and unload bags on a Boeing 727. As Customer Service Agent for United Airlines in Wilmington, North Carolina, she was nominated for Best Customer Service Agent in the United States and actually won Best Customer Service Agent in the Southeast United States. She knows how everything works together at an airport, and the importance of working together. She worked at Hanger One, the only general aviation at Atlanta International, as well as Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport, one of the busiest airports in the world, whose mission statement is “to be the world's best airport by exceeding customer expectations.” She believes that if COS thinks like an international airport, they can become the best international airport in the world.

She is a Community Leader. She was appointed by our City Council to the Colorado Springs Airport Advisory Commission, and she is the only woman on that commission. She has been Vice-Chair of the El Paso County Highway Advisory Commission that she presently serves on and was the first woman to ever be selected for that Commission. She was appointed to the El Paso County Board of Adjustment. As a Certified Mediator, she was selected to serve as a volunteer Mediator for the Better Business Bureau of Southern Colorado and a Court Liaison for the El Paso County Small Claims Court. She is a former Chaplain of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Zebulon Pike Chapter. In 2008, she originated One Citizen, One Commission, a new grass-roots plan for voter participation in government, which was adopted by the League of Women Voters of the Pikes Peak Region as a part of their 2008-2009 Program. Her community service was recognized when she was nominated for both the Colorado Springs Business Journal's "Women of Influence" Award and the Southern Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce Accolades "Business Leader of the Year" Award.

She is a professional. She is a member of The Greater Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce, Military Affairs Council, Colorado Springs Convention & Visitors Bureau, Southern Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce (2007 Accolades Committee), Southern Colorado Better Business Bureau, Manitou Springs Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau, League of Women Voters and HSMAI (Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association International). As a Certified Mediator, she is a member of IACP (International Academy of Collaborative Professionals), ACR (Association for Conflict Resolution), CCMO (Colorado Council of Mediators & Mediation Organizations) and IAF (International Association of Facilitators). As a former TV host and NASCAR Racing Announcer, she is a member of AWRT (American Women in Radio & Television). As a provider of Pet Funerals and Equine Funerals of Tribute, she is a member of the APLB (Association for Pet Loss and Bereavement). A military supporter, she is a Business Sponsor of the Fort Carson Directorate of Morale, Welfare and Recreation, which provides continuous free programs for Fort Carson Soldiers and their families.

She holds graduate degrees. She holds a Doctorate Degree in Biblical Counseling, an honorary Doctor of Divinity, a Masters in Counseling, and is a graduate of Weist-Barron School of Television and Television & Radio Commercials. She holds GRI (Graduate, Realtors Institute) certification in Real Estate from the University of Georgia and CPE (Clinical Pastoral Education) certification from Emory University in Atlanta. She received her Certified Mediator designation from the Institute for Advanced Dispute Resolution in Boulder, Colorado.